VOLUME XXII

A decorative border with Egyptian motifs, including hieroglyphs and stylized figures, surrounds the text. The word "DEDICATION" is prominently displayed at the top in a bold, blocky font.

DEDICATION

To

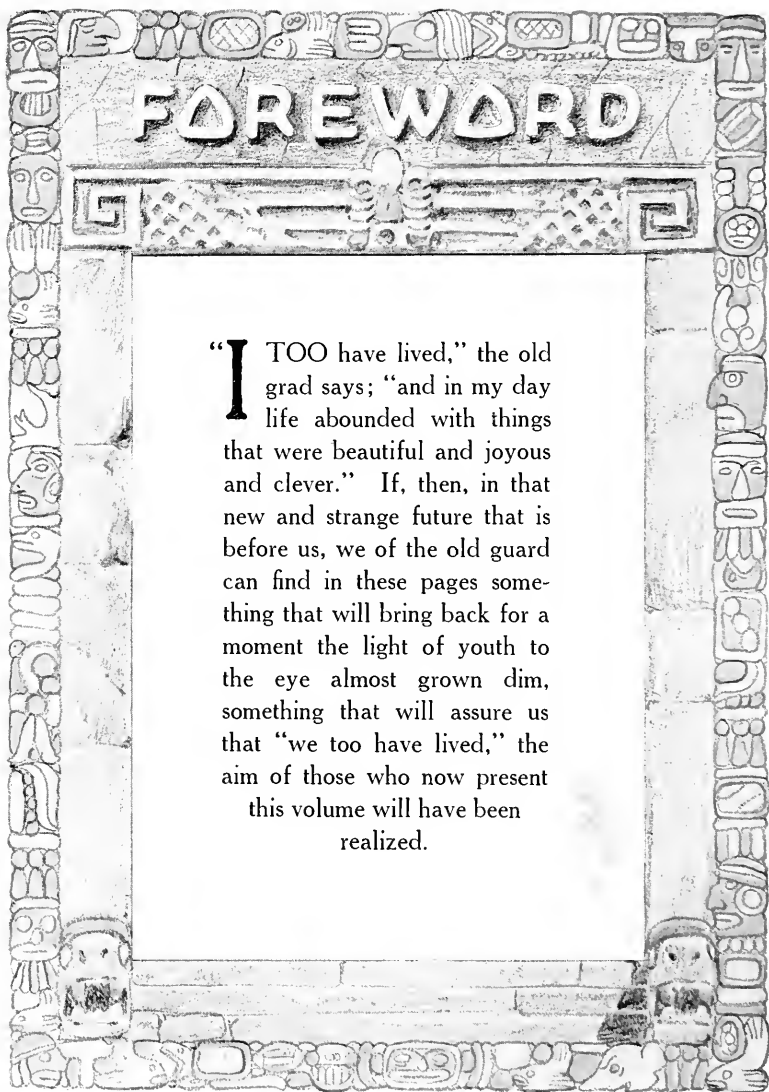

Prof. M. C. White

Head of the Department of English, chairman of the faculty committees on athletics and literary activities, organizer and director of the Millsaps Players, coach of debating and tennis, and mainstay of the student activities of the College, this the

1928 Bobashela

is respectfully dedicated by the staff.

I TOO have lived," the old grad says; "and in my day life abounded with things that were beautiful and joyous and clever." If, then, in that new and strange future that is before us, we of the old guard can find in these pages something that will bring back for a moment the light of youth to the eye almost grown dim, something that will assure us that "we too have lived," the aim of those who now present this volume will have been realized.

Alma Mater

*Alma Mater, dear old Millsaps,
Loyal sons are we;
Our fond hearts are thine alone
And evermore shall be.
Proud art thou in classic beauty
Of thy noble past,
With thy watchword, Honor, Duty,
Thy high fame shall last.*

*Ev'ry student, man and maiden,
Swell the glad refrain,
Till the breezes, music laden,
Waft it back again.
Proud art thou in classic beauty
Of thy noble past,
With thy watchword, Honor, Duty,
Thy high fame shall last.*

ZIMOSKI

VAN HOOK

Coaches

Coach "Jimmy," serving his last year as a Purple mentor, continued to produce lines that even the best that the mighty Alabamians hurled against it could not penetrate for many appreciable gains. Coach Zimoski has turned out some mighty good players since he took over the reins of the athletic squads here. He came here as a stranger, and was the first full-time coach that the college boasted. Wherever he is, we bet that he has a good line and that he will give Howard a good fight, if not beat them.

"Goat" Hale, he of the wide-spread football and baseball ability, has worked himself into the hearts of all students and players. His coming brought a spirit of self-confidence that was noticeably lacking, to the players. Next year he will be head football coach, and baseball coach.

Coach Van Hook had the freshmen this year, and what a freshman bunch he did have! Look at the records. He got promoted though, and next year he will be there helping the varsity. Ask a freshman who is the most liked instructor on the campus and he will readily tell you that Van is.

GAINES CRAWFORD

SEXTON McMANUS

All-State

Captain Crawford ended his three years of starring on the Purple eleven in a burst of glory. Those three years he has been picked as first choice on All-State teams. It is the consensus of opinion that he is one of the very best triple threat men to ever cavort on a state gridiron. Always fighting and trying to win, Crawford made scintillating plays in every game and against the best teams that the Purple fought. "Windy" will sure be missed next year.

McManus, the "big little man" of the Major squad, was pronounced by football critics of four states as the best center, regardless of size, seen in action this year in their respective states. "Mac" is captain-elect of next year, winner of the Brannon Trophy for general football ability, and was placed first on all All-State teams. Weighing only one hundred and fifty pounds, McManus was one of the lightest men on the team and was the lightweight of the line. Lack of weight could not overcome a strong heart, a quick brain and speed, so Mac was one of the really good football players on the squad.

MOODY

WELSH

BILBO

"GOOFY" WRIGHT, after a late start on account of injuries, rapidly rounded into good form and was one of the most consistent ground gainers on the squad. Watch him go in the fall.

S. R. MOODY, diminutive, but heady and fast quarter, made many sparkling plays. He fought all the time and will be missed next year.

"KID" WELSH, the boy from Bogalusa, is counted on by the coaches as being one of the mainsprings of next fall's team. Heavy and fast, Welsh is a football player.

"GOV" BILBO. In his second year of varsity experience, "Gov" started most of the games and in each one acquitted himself well. Many a man was snared by Bilbo when a touchdown seemed certain.

PEEVEY

"PAT" ROUSE was the line backer par excellence. He plugged up holes, he stopped charging backs, he played his position with adeptness. Pat will be here next year.

JESSE JOHNSON earned the monicker "Seven Yards" Johnson. Give him the ball; then move the line seven yards. Jesse's first year on the varsity, and he will be back next year.

"TED" CAMPBELL has the requisites of a consistent performer, and in all probability will have an opportunity to display them this fall.

"MR." PEEVEY leaned this way and that way and down came two men. In his last year for the Purple, Peevey lent valuable assistance to holding opposing teams to minimum downs.

Bobashela, 1928

BAXTER

BROOKS

McLAURIN

BOSWELL

"DICK" BAXTER, playing his third year on the varsity, displayed all the fight, speed and ability that marked him as a fresh star of '24.

"PUNY" BROOKS, big and brawny, played this season handicapped by injuries. He stayed in the game though.

GILMER McLAURIN did not play frosh football, but he came out this year and made the varsity. "Mac" starred in several encounters and promises to be a mainstay of the line next year.

"POTTS" BOSWELL's claim to fame was gained when the Purple played Miami. The Florida sports editors tacked this to him, so we will use it too—"that lumbering tackle."

BENNETT

DRANE

BEALLE

"LON CHANEY" BENNETT, in his first varsity year, played stellar ball and is counted a bright prospect for next fall's team.

"RUBE" BLOUNT has played four years of ball for the purple and it will not be easy to forget Rube's cutting in and grabbing a pass from Crawford. Rube was right there.

"RED" DRANE had a hard job being understudy for McManus. McManus will graduate some day and then "Red" will get to play.

JOHN BEALLE, a sophomore, gave the two regular ends a run for their money. He played a consistent game and starred on breaking up punts.

HOLCOMB

KURTS

ROBERT HOLCOMB, playing his second year on the varsity, was a linesman of proven ability. Great things are expected of him.

"TURBY" RAPE, after playing for two years on the varsity, slowed up a bit and he fought against youth and speed for his place in the line. His play at Miami was one of the high points of the game.

GEORGE BOUNDS was always there scrimmaging, fighting, and is a strong candidate for a berth next fall.

GEORGE KURTS punted his team out of danger many times, but was handicapped by injuries received early in the season.

Varsity Football

The Major gridders of '27 were a fighting group of players who played a good brand of football, though the record is not of the impressive variety. Crawford and McManus furnished the thorns for the opposition. Crawford, always a threat, got away in almost every game for a brilliant end run, while McManus was showing about three opposing linesmen how to play their positions. The Purple, for the first time, played a post season game. They journeyed to Miami and played the University there on the golden sands. Beat them, too.

Millsaps experienced a mediocre basketball season in 1928. Failure of the team to show consistent winning form was attributed to the lack of goal shooting ability. Windy Crawford was a bright light, with Goober Carruth starring in every game.

Baseball at Millsaps with "Goat" Hale coaching it, promises to wage a bitter fight to regain some of its lost prestige. This year there is a noticeable lack of pitching talent, but the Freshmen have some to spare and the experience of this year promises to help in the building of a team for next year.

Freshman Basketball

A well-rounded court delegation was developed by Coach Van Hook this year. The outfit showed good form and teamwork in all of the contests played, and there were quite a number of them. Several excellent prospects were polished for future varsity service. A number of local prep combinations were trimmed during the season, and but seldom did the Minors taste defeat; then it was never by any overwhelming score. Austin Brantley was the brightest individual star of the lot, closely followed by Marion Hale. The high light of the season was the 115 to 19 victory over the Canton Y. M. C. A.

Girls' Basketball

One of Millsap's most colorful and successful athletic organizations is the Co-ed basketball team. Always fighting to win, always ready to fight, and most of the time winning, the Co-eds lost the State Championship in a heart-breaking game to Delta State. Of the regulars, Newell, Lingle and Setzler will not return next year. Lingle and Setzler were two of the best forwards seen on the local court. Their shooting and their team work was little short of marvelous. Strait (not in panel), did good work at guard.

Minor Football

The Minor football machine was the most powerful in the history of the institution. Playing through an unusually hard schedule, the frosh came out on the long end of the score every time but once. Clarke College was the team that turned the trick and they did it by the margin of one touchdown. The team, fast and heavy, was with such an array of talent that it would be hard to pick a really individual star, rather we would say the team was the star. Jake Miller with dazzling end runs, bullet-like or loop passes, was, if anyone was, the best individual performer of the bunch. The team, of course, pointed to Mississippi College's Papposes. The baby Chocs were completely snowed under, 32 to 0, by an avalanche of line bucks, passes and perfect team work.

Millsaps Golf Club

Golf is the one sport that has taken the campus by storm. Almost any hour of the lighted ones, some poor nut can be seen knocking the deuce out of the little white pellet; then with a happy smile lighting his countenance, plod over the hill after the elusive pill. The club was organized this year with R. E. Byrd as president and Hoyle Byrd as secretary. A tournament with a representative entry from the student body was played, and judging from its success and the enthusiasm displayed there, it promises to be an annual feature of the Golf Club.

Tennis

Only one match has been played by the Major racquetees this season. In that match at Southwestern Louisiana Institute, the team of Fowler and Boswell won the doubles sets but lost both singles contests after a hard fight. In the Mississippi Intercollegiate tournament to be played on the Millsaps College courts, Boswell and Captain Fowler, with Sessions and Ford as capable reserves, should go far towards winning the coveted championship. The team is made up of three juniors and one sophomore, Boswell, who will all be back next year to fight, fight hard, to win.

The Choctaws Win

In the feature contest of the year, Millsaps' utter inability to break up anybody's forward passing attack proved to be the margin of victory for the Choctaws from Mississippi College. The Majors fought hard but Hitt threw passes in, over, and around our men to the mournful tune of two touchdowns. The Majors were within striking distance of the Choctaws' goal line, but the needed punch was not there. It was by Crawford's consistently good punting that the Braves' score was held down. It was our game in the first and third quarters, then the Chocs took things into their hands in the second and fourth rounds. Wait until next year! That is not a threat, it is a prayer.

THE ORGANIZATION

The Philomathean Literary Society of Millsaps College was organized January 16, 1928. At this time only a temporary organization was effected, the only two officers elected being Peggy O'Neal, temporary chairman, and Bessie George Donald, temporary secretary. It was not until February 14, 1928, that a permanent organization was set up and the officers named above were elected to serve for the remainder of the current session. The constitution and by-laws of the society were also permanently adopted at this meeting. The regular meeting time was set as Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. The general plan of the programs is the same at those of the Galloway and Lamar Societies, although some variations have been made from time to time. The major aim is to train the women students of Millsaps for excellence in debating and public speaking.

During the latter part of the last term the Philomatheans plan to participate in the Inter-Society Debates of the college, debating both the Lamars and the Galloways. They have also arranged for an intercollegiate debate with Belhaven College and have arrangements under way with several other colleges. Outstanding during this session have been: Dorothy Moore, Linnie Lingle, Nell Finch, Ruth Gainey, Hattie Ray Lewis and Marie Flink.

Resolved

We will love in a new way
In this new year,
With quiet, sacred tenderness,
Which needs no vulgar, cheap caress,
Devoid of kisses . . . none the less Sincere.

We will love in a new way
In this new year,
But resolutions amorous,
Like kisses platitudinous,
Should all be celebrated . . . thus . . .
My dear.

Fires

G. E. GREENWAY

I did not think that I could strike a spark
To kindle you from your serene restraint.
With hopeless hands I sought you in the dark,
Resigned to your caprice without complaint.
But unto me you yielded, you complied
With fire which to all others was denied.

Dear lighter, can all this be really true
That I can get a decent light from you?

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S WHAT

Who's Who and How!

1. MASTER MAJOR—Riley had a comfortable margin for this highest honor over McManus' 30 and Blount's 26.
 MOST COLLEGIATE SPIRIT—Riley's victory over Lingle with 25 votes, and Beacham with 20, was never in doubt.
2. REPRESENTATIVE CO-ED—Miss Ruth Buck was an easy winner; Olivia Knox, 30; Peggy O'Neal, 28, also ran.
3. MOST INTELLIGENT—Wharton's intelligence was slightly above Beacham's 79, and S. F. Riley's 9.
4. BEST LIKED PROFESSOR—Dr. Huddleston repeated his victory of last year over Professor Stevens with 26 votes, and Professors White and Van Hook with 23 each.
5. FACULTY GRIPE—Professor Swearingen started on his career all o. k. by taking this coveted honor away from the more experienced profs. He easily captured the prize with his closest opponents, Hooker and Hamilton, far behind with 38 and 36 votes respectively. Rah Boom! Faculty Gripe!
6. THAT DAMN FRESHMAN—Horton led the pack. "Skeeter" Golden and Bill Caston with 49 and 46 votes fighting it out for second place.
7. HIS LADYSHIP—Blank got "231" votes, leading the entire ticket. Did you vote?
8. LOVESICKEST COUPLE—Watkins and Simmons got some hot competition from Crull and Stackhouse with 107 votes. Wortman and Mann dragged in with 24 votes.
9. MOST STYLISH—Olive Williams' retained her title won last year with ease over Elise Herring, 10, and Joe Ellis Buie, with 6 votes.
10. MOST ACCOMPLISHED—Seawright, naturally, went in with a large majority of votes trailed by Beacham with 18, and Riley with 12.
11. MOST POPULAR STUDENT—Miss Flink doubled her closest opponent's vote, Miss Heidelberg, 27; Riley and McManus tied for third with 20 each.
12. HANDSOMEST—Countess, Robinson, 37, and Mounger, 26, pulled off a three cornered race with Gene just far enough ahead to win.
13. MOST SOPHISTICATED CO-ED—Jane Power, 43; Leone Shotwell and Olive Williams, 30 each, furnished the competition for Miss Herring.
14. BEST DRESSED MAN—Caver was much better dressed than Fowler, 36, and Seawright, 22.
15. MISS "IT"—A closely bunched race with Elizabeth Heidelberg, 21, and Jo Jeff Power, 20, pushing Miss Nobles.
16. MY DEAR GASTON—Closest race of them all; Wharton, 12, and J. W. Alford, 10.
17. BIGGEST HORSE—Doc Bolton was a good second; Mobley, a poor third, 10. Neigh! Neigh!

A Collegiate Dictionary

Athlete: A wood-chopper on winter vacation; big cheese and exalted ruler over freshmen and co-eds.

Bull: Little calf's papa; member of the faculty; landscape artist.

Bull Party: A gab-fest; a rag-chewing race; gathering of fat-chewing idlers.

Bull Feast: Dormitory dinner.

Chapel: Grim relic of the Spanish Inquisition; thirty minutes of physical and mental lapse daily; a certain professor's favorite nap time.

Cheer Leader: Amateur magician; contortionist; first cousin to a goat; latest edition of mediaeval Punch and Judy show.

Co-Eds: The amusement for our idle moments; blessings in disguise (cosmetics); sometimes used synonymously with students, for they do come to school, every now and then, to study.

Dean: Diplomat; fence straddler; partisan, non-partisan, or bi-partisan.

Faculty: The original Roman Forum; a variegated assortment of eye-glasses and moustaches; see fossils.

Fraternity: A group of men held together by common ties, shirts, collars, etc.; college edition of the Chinese Tong wars; see rushing season.

Freshman: The rabble; the plebians; the common herd; advanced high school class.

Fossils: See Faculty.

Gym: Pardner Ben's idea of heaven; stomping ground for athletes.

Glee Club: A gang of boys whose voices cracked guzzling, siphoning, and yodeling soup; fog-horns out of the fog; imitations of the various noises heard in a boiler factory, shipyards, and the zoo.

Holiday: A make-up day for sleeping; a day without classes; i. e., December 25.

Line (noun): The act of lyin'; tactics used by either sex to string the other sex; see co-ed.

Players: Slapstick comedians in the make; young Barrymores and Greta Garbos.

Rushing Season: Open season on goats; period during which the goat is lord of all creation; period just preceding the metamorphosis from the incarnation of all virtues to the oblivion of commonplace goatship; the illusionment preceding the disillusionment.

Millsaps College: Only institution in the United States combining the prison systems of Sing Sing and Leavenworth in which inmates are required to pay for admittance.

Left: Mr. Ash's latest and most up-to-date interpretation of Delilah, husky charmer, who worked her wicked wiles on poor old Sampson.

Right: A whorl of wispy draperies and a hint of shy romance; that's Sadii, favorite decoration of the elaborate harem of old Hassan Ben Sed, the brute. Notice the soulful eyes, said by our model, Mr. Wilson, to be Sadii's chief charm.

And Center: Our own Mr. Golden's idea of that terrible little charmer, Helen of Troy. Mr. Golden declares that he has made a close study of this type, and warns all future freshmen that they are to be touched with care.

And below: Four popular co-eds—and why?

NOW, WHAT IN THE WORLD—??

Big Show in Town

EVERYONE INVITED—FREE!

Right this way, folks. Buy your tickets now. The show is ready to begin. Absolutely the greatest side show ever to be presented in the city of Jackson. Right this way. First we have the honor of explaining to you that this is the freshman class of Millsaps College, Jackson, Mississippi, for the year of 1924-25. There is no other class in existence that can be compared to this one. The only one of its kind in the world. Look! There on the top row, Carraway, Blount, Wharton, Matheny and that Paul Propst. That is a good line. Next—we have the Apollian Tommy Rape; look at Hudson, Sara Summers Thompson, Ruth Buck and Elise Herring. Then there is Mrs. Fadra Holmes Wilson, very prominently displayed in the front row. She is supported on the right by one Legg, and on the left by—well, you look.

Your attention this way, please. We have given away all the pamphlets that describe in detail all the curiosities that are offered in this section of the photograph, but we trust that the intelligence of the readers will supply all details. On the top row again we have Robinson, Riley, Mounger, Baxter, Seawright, Hood and Moody. Second row presents for your approval Freshman Beacham and Brooks—surrounded by several fellows that deserted the class. You will notice that "Goat" Hudson tried to be a hog and had his mug stuck in both sections. (This picture did not cost those frosh any money, you must know). There is Marjorie Smith and John Cadwallader. On the bottom row, look at Olivia Knox, do not let those books fool you! Again, do you see Fadra Holmes Wilson? Have you noticed and despised the really long skirts the damsels are wearing? Frosh of '24. Rah boom!

By These You Shall Know Them Anytime, Anywhere

DR. SULLIVAN: "Uh uh uh uh, uh uh! Uh uh uh uh?
Uh uh uh uh uh uh uh uh."

PROF. WHITE: "Isn't that true?"

DR. KEY: (Smack) "That will do."

PROF. SANDERS: "No es verdad?"

DR. MITCHELL (Clasps left hand against right hand):
"Let's have your attention, please."

PROF. SWEARINGEN: "—and what not."

DR. HAMILTON: "Uh?"

PROF. HARRELL: "It's the little things that count."

PROF. BARTLETT: "That was Professor Baldwin's favorite."

PROF. LIN: "Hah-hah, George Washington leaped twenty feet backwards, hah-hah."

DR. HUDDLESTON: "W-e-l-l, that's a-l-l."

PROF. VAN HOOK: "If the Freshmen had won that

Heaven Will Receive Us—

- When Mernelle Heuck teaches school.
- When "Egg" White gets a suit pressed.
- When you see Sadie V. without Herbie.
- When Mobley stops asking questions.
- When "231" wears a pink gingham dress.
- When members of different sororities speak cordially.
- When dollars sell for ten cents.
- When Dr. Mitchell ceases to gripe.
- When the varsity beats Mississippi College.

The Popularity Contest

(Editor's note. Ladies and gentlemen, lads and lasses, knowing as I do that Who's Who Contest is full of petti-coat plotting, that the facts are not always quoted, and that you are desirous of, and should have, the truth, I herewith present for your benefit the correct Who's Who Contest results.

- Best Athlete (boy or girl) Frank Lyell
- Biggest Man-Hater Mildred Nobles
- Biggest Woman-Hater Herbie Simmons
- Jazziest Frosh Adair
- Most Sociable Wayne Floyd
- Most Dignified S. F. Riley
- Biggest Loafer A. V. Beacham
- Most Graceful Tommy Rape
- Most Conceited Pinkey Blakemore

CALENDAR of EVENTS

SEPTEMBER

14. College opens with inspiring talk; by some citizens of the state. Much handshaking on the part of the old students. They say things they do not mean.
15. We get a good look at the faculty and discover several new curiosities.
17. First edition of the Purple and White under the editorship of Maclachlan. Coach Zimoski says that the Majors are showing real form in practice.
20. Annual College Night. Faculty and frosh are the performers; particularly the faculty. Dr. Haminton tells his German joke for the nth time. Editor has funny idea that the annual will be out on April 1.
21. Coach Van Hook says that the frosh eleven is fast and heavy.
22. Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. plan for a big year.
24. Purple battle with the Crimson Tide in Tuscaloosa.
26. Fraternities hold "open house" and try to make the most of their three weeks rushing season. Many hearts flutter in anticipation of a bid.
28. Co-eds have a little publicity. Purple and White has added a co-ed column.

OCTOBER

1. Majors go to Shreveport to meet the Centenary Gentlemen.
3. Right Royal Ramblers start their ramblings and ravings.
4. Parties galore as rush season comes to close. Varsity girls receive sweaters for their services in '26-'27.
7. Colonel Charles Lindbergh lands in Jackson and we get a little minute off.
8. Majors win over Howard, 13 to 6. Shame on Howard. Fraternities have pledge day.
12. Ziegfeld Follies take Jackson and the Frosh by storm. No lessons next day.
14. Goating time is here. Crazy clothes and crazier upper classmen is the order of the day.
15. Majors 33; Clarke o.
18. The fair is in full swing. There is a great day coming.
19. Freshman declares the two-headed cow a fake.
20. Tomorrow!
21. Students of Whitworth and Millsaps parade to the fair grounds. Score, Mississippi College 12; Millsaps o. Heart-rending, but we sang in the twilight the glories that are Millsaps'.
22. Out of human sympathy three-fourths of the faculty force themselves to not meet their interesting classes. L. S. U. wins over A. and M.
28. Student teachers entertain pupils from the Methodist Orphanage with a Hallowe'en party.
29. Union 12; Millsaps o.
31. Annual "Y" get-together at Galloway Hall. Miss Unknown is the social light of the occasion.

Bobashela, 1928

NOVEMBER

1. New fraternity starts, locally known as Alpha Pi Sigma. Kit Kats meet with Professor White.
2. Girls' Glee Club has first trioling practice of the year. There was much warbling and wailing.
4. Birmingham-Southern 13; Millsaps 0.
10. Millsaps leaders open annual Methodist Conference. Long and solemn countenances are quite in vogue.
11. Armistice Day! Never a holiday. Gridiron clash between Kappa Delta and Phi Mu sororities. Something new under the sun. No serious casualties.
14. Intercollegiate magazine known as "Hoi Pol'oi" takes campus by storm. Our Avie Beacham is the editor.
20. The Majorettes take the score all the time. Thanksgiving we lost to Southwestern, but we got our thrill from the Major Band boys strutting in their new purple and white uniforms.

DECEMBER

1. Exams galore. Need I say more? Students keep such late hours it is not good for their health.
6. Second term begins. Gee, but these sentences that Tsar Key metes out to us are getting, so soon, monotonous as flu.
10. Millsaps was host to the Rhodes Scholarship Selection Committee.
11. It is officially announced that before 1930 we will have a concrete stadium with 8,000 seats erected on our famous bowl.
12. "The End of the Rainbow Called Happiness" was the Little Minister's, Reverend Gaines Lynch, subject of a laughable chapel talk.
14. Members of Southern Methodist Press Association were guests of Galloway Hall for lunch. Board goes up.
15. Professors are cutting right and left.
16. Majorettes open home season by defeating the Grenada Misses.
20. Majors fight their last battle of the season on the gridiron at Miami. They bring home the oranges, or whatever Florida has to correspond with bacon.
22. Christmas holidays! Mrs. Idom wrote a letter to Santa.

JANUARY

2. Holidays are over. 'Tis supposed to be business from now on.
4. Senior committees are appointed, and they begin to look dignified.
8. Pledges endure many hardships and humiliations, but it won't be long now.
10. Who's Who contest. Many are called but few are chosen.
11. "Nothing But The Truth" presented by the Millsaps Players. The presentation is assured of a long run as several nearby cities are clamoring for it already.
13. Major cagers are working hard. Majorettes score over Whitworth Kaydets.
14. Goat season comes to an end after a long struggle. "231" appears on the scene in a flash of glory and a pink gingham dress.
15. Officers for the Golf Club are elected.
18. Varsity defeats the telephone poles from L. P. I. Freshmen have a good team.
24. Co-eds organize Philomathean Literary Society.
26. Doc Bolton and P. P. Perrit still have a monopoly on the Purple and White locals section. Perrit even made the Co-ed column.
27. Majorettes lose state championship to Delta State by two points. Collapse of gym demoralizes "Bull" McKeithan's Delta cheering section.

FEBRUARY

2. Varsity football banquet. McManus chosen captain. Sweaters awarded to twenty.
4. In response to public demand, the Millsaps Players present "Nothing But the Truth" for a second time to a Jackson audience.
6. Dr. George Stoves arrives to conduct a week's revival on the campus. Somebody says he's one of those modernist fellows.
11. Millsaps Glee Club makes its initial appearance in Jackson at the college chapel.
31. Calendar Editor, who also has other things to do, threatens Editor with mayhem and goes on strike. Editor goes on drunk and mails calendar to printers incomplete.

PROGRESS FOLLOWS POWER

That the people of America enjoy greater prosperity, more comforts and larger earning capacity is due largely to the great use of electric power machinery.

Electricity today is doing the work of 170,000,000 men in the United States. The availability of power from interconnected systems has resulted in tremendous development, particularly in some of the Southern States.

The Mississippi Power & Light Company's transmission lines are interconnected with some of the largest electric generating stations in the world, and electric power in abundance is available in over 117 different communities in our State.
